

JOB DESCRIPTION

FIELD SERVICE TECHNICIAN FIRE TRAINING SYSTEMS

JOB SUMMARY

Field Service Technicians work at various customer sites, and in the Kirila Fire shop, troubleshooting mechanical and electrical problems and perform unscheduled and scheduled maintenance on Fire Training Equipment equipment throughout the world.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES

- Excellent Mechanical and Electrical troubleshooting skills
- Experience with PLC control systems
- Experience with Fire Training Systems preferred
- A successful track record of employment
- An aggressive commitment to achieving success
- Strong Sense of Urgency
- Ability to Work Independently
- Availability to work overtime
- A professional demeanor
- A superior level of customer service that promotes goodwill between the company and customer
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- A driving record that is in good standing

CONTACT INFORMATION

Please respond to careers@kirilafire.com with resume and cover letter or apply online.

Please note that due to the high volume of responses, we will only respond to those candidates whose backgrounds and experience most closely match our needs. NO PHONE CALLS PLEASE